

Psychotraumatology Institute Europe, aims to foster continuing education and research of chronic traumatization. To this end, PIE invites experts to give cutting edge presentations, workshops, and courses for clinicians. PIE also initiates and supports research of chronic traumatization, particularly, the empirical study of trauma-related dissociation and dissociative disorders.

